MPP 134: collection of papers and memorabilia

Some of the following documents were removed from their original bundles, and therefore from their correct archival position in the College archives, before the compilation of this catalogue; it is now impossible to replace them as there is no record of the original positions.

MPP 134 A	Letters and notes
MPP 134 A1	Letter from Pater to the Principal, Edward Hartopp Cradock, agreeing to undertake duties which had been proposed to him (1 doc) Number 8 in Letters of Walter Pater , by Lawrence Evans (Oxford 1970) See also: MPP 134 A7	undated [ c .1867]
MPP 134 A2	Receipt for tuition fees, signed by Walter Pater (1 doc)	1876
MPP 134 A3	Letter from Pater to the Principal, Edward Hartopp Cradock, about TG Jackson's new buildings for the College and commenting upon the existing situation in the 'back quadrangle' undated [1881] (1 doc)  Number 65 in Letters of Walter Pater, by Lawrence Evans (Oxford 1970)  With a note recording the removal of this letter from 'envelope 34 in the red series' in Jan 1965. This envelope apparently contained letters of TG Jackson about the new buildings; it is no longer to be found [May 1994] and so the letter cannot be replaced in its correct position in the College archives. (1 doc) See also: MPP 134 A7	undated [1881] & 1965
MPP 134 A4	Letter from Pater to Frederick Wedmore, writer and art critic, about his Notes by Mr Wedmore on French Eighteenth Century Art (1885), with envelope (2 docs)  Number 85 in Letters of Walter Pater , by  Lawrence Evans (Oxford 1970)  See also: MPP 134 A7	1885

In May 1988 Dr J H A Sparrow, formerly Warden of All Souls College [1952-1977], presented a collection of books and papers to Brasenose College. The majority consists of his collection relating to Walter Pater (1839-1894), writer, critic and Fellow of Brasenose. Among the books are many which belonged to Pater as well as works about him. The document collection [PP1] includes autograph manuscripts of Pater, related material, both original items and copies, and Dr Sparrow's own correspondence about his collections.

Most of these letters are printed in Letters of Walter Pater, edited Lawrence Evans (Oxford University Press 1970), which should be consulted for transcripts and notes. This catalogue gives a very brief indication of content, together with the number assigned to each letter by Evans. A complete transcript is provided of the letters which do not appear in Evans.

One letter of Pater, c.1890, [Evans 191] is pasted inside volume 1 of Marius the Epicurean (1st edition) in the Sparrow book collection.

As virtually none of the letters has a year date, the order and dating assigned by Evans have generally been used. Where Evans admits more than one possibility the letters have been placed at the end of the sequence. Undated items which are not in Evans are also at the end.

My dear Sir,

Thank you sincerely for your enthusiastic praise of "Marius". I have just published another book, entitled "Imaginary Portraits". I have seen Cambridge, and thought it a very beautiful place, though in a different way from Oxford. Should you ever be here, give me a call at Brasenose, where I am to be found during the greater part of term-time, and believe me Very truly yours

I have always thought that Tennyson had localised his scenes for himself and remember a description in him of Camelot, which seemed to have exactly the air of Winchester about it. There is an interesting essay, (though with little or nothing as to this point,) on the Arthur Legend, at the end of Renan's Essais de Morale et de Critique. The Pines

March 7.6

Dear Sir,

Very many thanks for the gift of your admirable life of Burton. I have already read a good deal of it with great interest. I should like of all things to tell you in person something of the days we passed together in the south of France in 1869. They seem to me more like two or three than thirty-seven years ago. If you should care to look me up on the day after tomorrow, I should be happy to see you in the afternoon.

My acquaintance with the late Mr. Pater was of the very slightest. I should doubt if we ever met more than three or four times.

Yours faithfully

A C Swinburne

The Pines March 10.7

Dear Mr. Wright,

I ought long since to have thanked you for the gift of your two beautiful volumes. I know so little of Pater's work that I am quite incompetent to offer an opinion on their contents. I remember telling him how beautiful & how happy in its expression of a critical truth I thought a passage in his first book – of which he had sent me a copy.

I remain

Yours very sincerely A C Swinburne

I shall be delighted to discuss Matthew Arnold with you whenever you care to call on me. I still retain a very warm admiration for his best poetry, & I heartily agreed with Jowett's admiration of his 'Literature & Dogma' - of his religious criticism. As a literary critic I never thought him worth serious consideration, but simply, when writing of English or French poetry, as a 'cultured' dunce - most seriously & sedately silly.
