

Bursar

Competitive salary

The Governing Body of Brasenose College, Oxford is seeking to appoint a Bursar who will be the Chief Financial and Administrative Officer of the College. The Bursar is a leading member of the senior management team and plays a central role in ensuring the functioning of the college in its non-academic aspects. As a full member of the Governing Body, the Bursar will take the lead in the continued development of the College's financial strategy and the management and care of its assets, including investment portfolio, in the context of a vibrant, self-governing intellectual community.

The Role:

- Responsible to the Governing Body for the oversight and control of the finances of the College, and the management of its investments.
- Reporting to the Principal, lead and manage a complex support staff serving all non-academic operations of the College.
- Representative role working on finance matters with the University, counterparts in other colleges and wider stakeholders.

The Candidate:

- Robust senior finance professional, with high intellectual capacity and success in management roles, including the delivery of organisational change.
- Strategic thinker; energetic and innovative; first class negotiator, with strong communication skills and an enabling style of people management.
- Clear commitment to, and affinity with, the culture and objectives of the College.

A candidate brief can be downloaded at www.odgers.com/31571 or requested by telephone, quoting reference AWA/31571. Closing date: 19th April, 2010.

11 Hanover Square,
London W1S 1JJ

0845 1309005

www.odgersberndtson.co.uk

ODGERS BERNDTSON

Executive Search

51 offices in 24 countries